

1 God understands our circumstances.

⁹They said to him, "Where is Sarah your wife?" And he said, "She is in the tent." ¹⁰The Lord said, "I will surely return to you about this time next year, and Sarah your wife shall have a son." And Sarah was listening at the tent door behind him. GENESIS 18:9,10

God knew Abraham and Sarah's need for an heir and desire for a child, and He addressed this with the promise of a son at a specific time. God knows us and understands our every circumstance, as well as our thoughts and emotions. He cares deeply for us and has a promise for us. He desires to show us that He is a faithful and merciful God. According to Psalm 34:15, how does God respond to our cries?

2 God wants us to have faith in Him.

¹¹Now Abraham and Sarah were old, advanced in years. The way of women had ceased to be with Sarah. ¹²So Sarah laughed to herself, saying, "After I am worn out, and my lord is old, shall I have pleasure?" ¹³The Lord said to Abraham, "Why did Sarah laugh and say, 'Shall I indeed bear a child, now that I am old?'" GENESIS 18:11-13

Sarah laughed because she doubted the Lord's promise of a son, knowing it to be physically impossible. But Abraham and Sarah conceived a son despite their old age, proving the power of God. God's promises may seem impossible at first glance. Instead of doubting and questioning God, respond in faith and believe that He can do everything He says. How does Numbers 23:19 encourage us to be in faith that God will fulfill His promises?

3 With God, nothing is impossible.

"Is anything too hard for the Lord? At the appointed time I will return to you, about this time next year, and Sarah shall have a son." GENESIS 18:14

God proved to Abraham and Sarah that He was able and willing to give them a son, even if the circumstance dictated otherwise. Nothing is too hard for the Lord. Even in the most difficult circumstances, He will demonstrate His power and might in our lives by fulfilling His seemingly impossible promises. When something impossible happens, there is no denying that He is the One who moved. Why does God want us to experience how He makes the impossible possible?
