

WORD

Jesus said, "For judgment I came into this world, that those who do not see may see, and those who see may become blind."

JOHN 9:39

Jesus came into the world so that those who are spiritually blind may see. When Jesus healed the man who was born blind, He revealed the condition of everyone who, despite seeing the visible, failed to see the spiritual. Jesus said, "I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will not walk in darkness, but will have the light of life." The man whom Jesus healed believed this truth and worshiped Him (John 8:12). However, not all people responded the same way. In this lesson, we will look at different reactions to Jesus' healing of the man who was born blind—from the disciples to the Pharisees and the man himself—and we will learn how to respond to Him.

1 Disciples

¹As he passed by, he saw a man blind from birth. ²And his disciples asked him, "Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents, that he was born blind?" JOHN 9:1,2

In Jewish culture, it is common to believe that suffering or disability might be a result of sin. This is why the disciples asked Jesus whether the blind man or his parents had sinned. But Jesus addressed their question by stating that the man's disability is to show how the works of God might be displayed in him. It was not a question of who sinned or to whom it had happened. Rather, Jesus showed how God's mercy and power can deliver us. Do you think that most people would respond the way the disciples did? Why?

2 Pharisees

Some of the Pharisees said, "This man is not from God, for he does not keep the Sabbath." But others said, "How can a man who is a sinner do such signs?" And there was a division among them. JOHN 9:16

The Pharisees showed disbelief toward Jesus and pointed out that because Jesus broke the law of the Jewish Sabbath (holy day of rest) by healing the blind man, He could not have been sent by God. From this story, we can see that the Pharisees followed many dos and don'ts concerning the Sabbath, but in order to strictly observe these rules, they forgot love and kindness for others. In the end, by healing the man born blind on the Sabbath, Jesus showed them that God is beyond man-made rules. Unlike the Pharisees who placed authority on their traditions, Jesus upheld the spirit of the law and showed compassion. How have you learned to be led by the Spirit rather than rules?

3 The Man Born Blind

"One thing I do know, that though I was blind, now I see." JOHN 9:25

Jesus did not just heal the man who had spent years in darkness; He also healed him spiritually and opened his spiritual eyes to who Jesus really is. In the end, the man had a clear understanding of the One who had healed him and went from experiencing what Jesus did for him to actually believing and worshiping Him. How do you think the miracle of that day changed the man who had been born blind?
